

Marine Park First School
GDPR Privacy Notice (How we use pupil information)

Why do we collect and use pupil information?

We collect and use pupil information under Section 537A of the Education Act 1996, Section 83 of the Children Act 1989 and “Article 6” and “Article 9” of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Article 6 (GDPR) condition: Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the data controller is subject.

Article 9 (GDPR) condition: For substantial public interest on legal basis.

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to ensure that we meet our statutory obligations including those related to diversity and equality.

We may also receive information from their previous school or college, local authority, the Department for Education (DfE) and the Learning Records Service (LRS).

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address, contact number)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information (such as in year teacher assessment data, end of key stage assessment outcomes and end of year pupil reports)
- Relevant medical information (such as letters from GPs, paediatricians, therapists; medical care plans and EHCPs – Education Health Care Plans)
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities information ( such as letters from outside agencies and professionals with a particular expertise; minutes of SEND meetings and EHCPs)
- Pastoral information (such as behaviour records, records of exclusions, pastoral support, records of parental complaints and information linked to safeguarding)

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, when collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. When consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

Storing pupil data

Information and data is stored electronically and some in paper format. All information is held securely and treated sensitively. Confidential data stored on computer and is password protected. Access is restricted.

How long is your data stored for?

We hold personal data relating to pupils and their families in line with the school's GDPR Data Protection Policy and the Information and Records Management Society Retention Guidelines for Schools.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Who do we share pupil information with?

We will only provide personal information to an external organisation or individual for the purposes set out above or in order to help prevent; risk of harm to an individual, or if required to do so by law or under a data sharing agreement with your consent

We routinely share pupil information with:

- The Department for Education (DfE)
- North Tyneside Local Authority
- Schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- NHS (for inoculations etc)

Why we share pupil information

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our Local Authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the pupil information we share with the department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received>

To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

In order to support transition between schools, we will share personal information, including name, date of birth, address, unique pupil number, Gender, FSM, Pupil Premium, Ethnicity, First Language, EAL (English as an Additional Language), SEND, Gifted, Talented, In Care, Age, Terms Completed, Attendance data, Assessment data, relevant medical/pastoral information, and parental contact information with schools that the pupils attend after leaving us.

In order to support the School Nursing Service with the delivery of local and national health initiatives for children, e.g. health screening and child immunisation programmes, the school will share information. This will include the name, date of birth, address and school attended

Further details about other agencies we share information with:

With your consent and in accordance with the SEND Code of Practice, we may share information about your child with outside agencies and professionals such as Educational Psychologist, CAHMS, Language and Communication, Speech and Language, Occupational Therapy etc.

With your consent we share information about your child with ECRR – Reading Recovery and ECC – Numbers Counts if they take part in these intervention programmes, in order that progress can be tracked.

In order for school to manage an efficient electronic system for collating and analysing pupil assessment information we work with EES - Target Tracker. The following pupil data items are recorded within Target Tracker software: UPN (Unique Pupil Number), Name, Date of birth, Year Group, Date of Entry, Gender, FSM , PP, Ethnicity, First Language, EAL , SEN, In Care, Class, Age, Terms Completed, Attendance data, termly Assessment data.

In order for school to operate a texting service to parents we work with Schoolcomms which is integrated with SIMS. Schoolcomms uses pupil name/parent telephone contact details and class groups in order to provide this service.

If you wish your child to have school milk we register your child's name and date of birth with Cool Milk in order to provide this service.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact Ms Ramsey, the school's Business Manager in the school office 0191 2008723

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
